FC Crestone Announces the Addition of Michael Houy as Partner

January 10, 2018 (Denver, CO) – FC Crestone, LLC (“FCC”), a Denver-based private investment firm, is pleased to announce that Michael J. Houy has joined the firm as a Partner and Investment Committee member. Michael’s responsibilities will include sourcing, analyzing, structuring, and managing portfolio investments for the firm.

Michael joins FCC with over 10 years of direct investing experience. Prior to joining FCC, Michael was an investment professional at KPS Capital Partners, LP. At KPS, Michael’s responsibilities included identifying, evaluating, and executing control investments. Michael began his career at JPMorgan Securities, Inc. Michael graduated from the University of Massachusetts with a B.B.A. in Finance.

“We are very excited to welcome Michael to this next chapter of FC Crestone,” said Rich Horrigan, Partner and Co-founder. “Michael will immediately add value to our company and positively impact our investment strategy. He brings a wealth of experience to our corner of the lower middle market.”
